

Anti-Money Laundering (AML) Training – is required for all producers every two years in order to solicit our products. To meet this requirement, you must have completed, within 24 months of the date of your last course completion, AML training from one of the following sources:

- 1) LIMRA - For those who have completed a LIMRA AML refresher course through another Carrier.
“Refresher Training Course” – If you have previously taken the “Anti-Money Laundering for Insurance Producers” base course, we require you to take one of LIMRA’s available “refresher” courses. Please note that you cannot take the same course twice.
