The screenshot shows the Mutual of Omaha website interface. At the top, there is a dark blue navigation bar with the Mutual of Omaha logo on the left and a user profile icon on the right. Below this is a white navigation menu with the following items: "Sales Professional Access", "Products", "Sales & Marketing", "Reports", "Training & Compliance" (which is underlined), and "Search" with a magnifying glass icon. Below the navigation bar, there is a light gray banner with the text "Protect Your Business". The main content area has a white background and features the heading "NAIC Annuity Suitability Regulation". Below the heading is a paragraph: "To strengthen consumer protections against inappropriate and abusive annuity marketing practices, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners have set mandatory training requirements for annuity producers." To the left of the main content, there is a teal-colored text block: "The training must be completed before a producer recommends an annuity to a client." followed by a blue link: "View the states that have implemented the regulation". To the right of this text is a white box with a thin gray border containing the following text: "The training requirements include two separate parts for most states:" followed by a numbered list: "1. NAIC Annuity Suitability Training (a one-time 4-hour training course approved by the state department of insurance).", "2. Company Specific Annuity Product Training. Complete the following:" followed by sub-points: "a. Review the Mutual of Omaha Annuity Training," "b. Complete the Certification and Acknowledgement Form," "c. Submit the Certificate and Acknowledgement Form and 4-hour completion certificate to agency.mailbox@mutualofomaha.com or fax to Producer Services at (402) 997-1829". Below the list, there is a paragraph: "In compliance with this regulation, we will not process applications for annuity business submitted by producers who haven't completed the training requirements prior to selling."
